Join us on a spirited journey from Undivided India to the first Copper Chimney in Mumbai in 1972, as we throw back & pay homage to our 50 years legacy and the iconic 70s.

THE FRONTIER MAIL

This drink is an ode to our founder, Mr. J K Kapur and his journey across the border during the partition, as he started from scratch, carrying only a few suitcases and a heart filled with memories of his mother's recipes. This captivating blend of kokum-infused mezcal, with the timeless essence of the robust black cardamom, has been accentuated with a touch of orange.
